20 COMES NOW the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel, 21 United States Attorney, Karen P. Hewitt, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Rebecca S. Kanter, and hereby 22 files its Response and Opposition to Defendant's Motions to Compel Discovery and File Further

28 I

STATEMENT OF FACTSA. Defendant's Arrest

On October 22, 2007, at approximately 4:50 a.m., Border Patrol Agent L. Miller responded to a report from the Remote Video Surveillance Operator of several individuals running north from the International Boundary Fence with Mexico in an area known as "Libertad Hump," about 2.5 miles west of the San Ysidro Port of Entry. Agent Miller found three individuals running into the thick brush. The individual in the lead, wearing a dark hooded sweatshirt, was later identified as Jorge Alberto Lugos-Cisneros. All subjects admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico with no legal right to enter or remain in the United States. A fourth individual was later found crawling into some bushes in a nearby area. She also admitted to being a Mexican citizen in the United States illegally. She later stated that she was in the group being led by Defendant until she started struggling in her crossing and Defendant abandoned her.

B. Defendant's Post-Miranda Confession

On October 22, 2007, at approximately 7:00 a.m., Supervisory Border Patrol Agent Roberto Del Villar attempted to conduct a videotaped, sworn interview of Defendant. Defendant, however, admitted that he was a little drunk. Defendant was given an opportunity to sleep and the interview was continued at approximately 3:10 p.m. when Defendant was no longer intoxicated. Defendant was reminded of and waived his rights and agreed to be interviewed. Defendant said he illegally entered the United States for the purpose of transporting illegal aliens. He indicated that he was well aware that the individuals had no legal right to enter or remain in the United States. He stated that he approached each individual in Mexico and offered to smuggle them into the United States illegally for about $500. He said he knew he was already in the United States because he had paid $30 per smuggled alien to a "ladder guy" who allowed them to use his ladder to climb in the United States over the boundary fence.

IIDEFENDANT'S MOTIONS TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

On November 28, 2007, the Government provided Defendant with 148 pages of discovery including the complaint and statement of facts, reports from the Border Patrol officers, summaries of the statements made by Defendant and the material witnesses, the photographic line-up, the final report of investigation for Defendant's arrest. On November 30, 2007, the Government made available to Defendant a DVD of Defendant's post-Miranda interview and the material witnesses' interviews. To date, Defendant has yet to pick-up or acknowledge receipt of these materials.

(1) Defendant's Statements

The Government recognizes its obligation, under Rules 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B), to provide to Defendant the substance of Defendant's oral statements and written statements. (Unless otherwise noted, all references to "Rules" refers to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.) The Government has produced all of the Defendant's statements that are known to the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney at this date. If the Government discovers additional oral or written statements that require disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(A) or Rule 16(a)(1)(B), such statements will be promptly provided.

However, the Government objects to providing Defendant with a copy of the rough notes at this time. The Government is not required to produce the notes pursuant to the Jencks Act because the notes do not constitute "statements" (as defined 18 U.S.C. § 3500(e)) unless the notes (1) comprise both a substantially verbatim narrative of a witness' assertion, and (2) have been approved or adopted by the witness. United States v. Spencer, 618 F.2d 605, 606-07 (9th Cir. 1980). The notes are not Brady material because, as discussed further, the notes do not present any material exculpatory information or any evidence favorable to Defendant that is material to guilt or punishment. If, during a future evidentiary hearing, certain rough notes become particularly relevant, the notes in question will be made available to Defendant.

(2) Arrest Reports, Notes, and Dispatch Tapes

The Government has provided Defendant with all known reports related to Defendant's arrest in this case. The Government is not aware at this time of the existence of any dispatch tapes relevant to this case, but will attempt to determine whether any such tapes exist. The Government will continue to comply with its obligation to provide to Defendant all reports subject to Rule 16(a)(1)(A) and (B).^{1/} The Government has no objection to the preservation of the agents' handwritten notes. See United ^{1/} Defendant requests arrest reports and sworn statements pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(B) & (C). Rule 16(a)(1)(C) pertains to organizational defendants, which, the Government's knowledge, Mr. Lugos-Cisneros is not. The Government, therefore, interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(A) and (B).

1 States v. Harris, 543 F.2d 1247, 1253 (9th Cir. 1976) (agents must preserve their original notes of 2 interviews of an accused or prospective government witnesses). However, as explained above, the 3 Government objects to providing Defendant with a copy of the rough notes at this time. The 4 Government is not required to produce the notes pursuant to the Jencks Act because the notes do not 5 constitute “statements” (as defined 18 U.S.C. § 3500(e)) unless the notes (1) comprise both a 6 substantially verbatim narrative of a witness' assertion, and (2) have been approved or adopted by the 7 witness. United States v. Spencer, 618 F.2d 605, 606-07 (9th Cir. 1980). The notes are not Brady 8 material because, as discussed further, the notes do not present any material exculpatory information
 9 or any evidence favorable to Defendant that is material to guilt or punishment. If, during a future 10 evidentiary hearing, certain rough notes become particularly relevant, the notes in question will be made 11 available to Defendant.

12 (3) Report of Scientific Tests or Examinations

13 At this time, the Government is not aware of any scientific tests that have been performed in 14 connection with this case. The Government will provide Defendant with the results of any scientific 15 tests or examinations in accordance with Rule 16(a)(1)(F)^{2/} if any such tests are conducted.

16 (4) Brady Material

17 The Government has and will continue to perform its duty under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S.
 18 83 (1963) to disclose material exculpatory information or evidence favorable to Defendant when such 19 evidence is material to guilt or punishment. The Government recognizes that its obligation under Brady 20 covers not only exculpatory evidence, but also evidence that could be used to impeach witnesses who 21 testify on behalf of the United States. See Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150, 154 (1972); United 22 States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667, 676-77 (1985). This obligation also extends to evidence that was not 23 requested by the defense. Bagley, 473 U.S. at 682; United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97, 107-10 (1976).
 24 “Evidence is material, and must be disclosed (pursuant to Brady), ‘if there is a reasonable probability 25 that, had the evidence been disclosed to the defense, the result of the proceeding would have been 26

27 ^{2/} Defendant requests reports of scientific tests or examination pursuant to Rule 16(D).
 28 Since there is no such subsection in Rule 16, the Government interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(F).

different.” Carriger v. Stewart, 132 F.3d 463, 479 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc). The final determination of materiality is based on the “suppressed evidence considered collectively, not item by item.” Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419, 436-37 (1995).

Brady does not, however, mandate that the Government open all of its files for discovery. See United States v. Henke, 222 F.3d 633, 642-44 (9th Cir. 2000) (per curiam). Under Brady, the United States is not required to provide: (1) neutral, irrelevant, speculative, or inculpatory evidence (see United States v. Smith, 282 F.3d 758, 770 (9th Cir. 2002)); (2) evidence available to the defendant from other sources (see United States v. Bracy, 67 F.3d 1421, 1428-29 (9th Cir. 1995)); (3) evidence that the defendant already possesses (see United States v. Mikaelian, 168 F.3d 380-389-90 (9th Cir. 1999) amended by 180 F.3d 1091 (9th Cir. 1999)); or (4) evidence that the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney could not reasonably be imputed to have knowledge or control over. See United States v. Hanson, 262 F.3d 1217, 1234-35 (11th Cir. 2001). Brady does not require the Government “to create exculpatory evidence that does not exist,” United States v. Sukumolahan, 610 F.2d 685, 687 (9th Cir. 1980), but only requires that it “supply a defendant with exculpatory information of which it is aware.” United States v. Flores, 540 F.2d 432, 438 (9th Cir. 1976).

(5) Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under the Guidelines

The Government has provided and will continue to provide Defendant with all Brady material that may result in mitigation of Defendant’s sentence. Nevertheless, the Government is not required to provide information bearing on Defendant’s sentence until after Defendant’s conviction or guilty plea and prior to her sentencing date. See United States v. Juvenile Male, 864 F.2d 641, 647 (9th Cir. 1988) (no Brady violation occurs “if the evidence is disclosed to the defendant at a time when the disclosure remains in value”).

(6) Defendant’s Prior Record

The Government has provided Defendant with a copy of his known prior criminal record and, consequently, has fulfilled its duty of discovery under Rule 16(a)(1)(D).^{3/} See United States v. Audelo-^{3/} Defendant requests evidence of his prior record pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(B). The Government interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(D), which is the section of the discovery rule pertaining to a defendant’s prior record.

1 Sanchez, 923 F.2d 129 (9th Cir. 1990). To the extent that the Government determines that there are any 2 additional documents reflecting Defendant's prior criminal record, the Government will provide those 3 to Defendant.

4 (7) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence

5 The Government will disclose in advance of trial the general nature of any "other bad acts"
 6 evidence that the United States intends to introduce at trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 404(b). Evidence 7 should not be treated as "other bad acts" evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) when the evidence 8 concerning the other bad acts and the evidence concerning the crime charged are "inextricably 9 intertwined." United States v. Soliman, 812 F.2d 277, 279 (9th Cir. 1987).

10 (7) Evidence Seized

11 The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E)^{4/} in allowing 12 Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy all evidence seized 13 that is within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the preparation of 14 Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its case-in-chief at 15 trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant.

16 (8) Request for Preservation of Evidence

17 The Constitution requires the Government to preserve evidence "that might be expected to play 18 a significant role in the suspect's defense." California v. Trombetta, 467 U.S. 479, 488 (1984). To 19 require preservation by the Government, such evidence must (1) "possess an exculpatory value that was 20 apparent before the evidence was destroyed," and (2) "be of such a nature that the defendant would be 21 unable to obtain comparable evidence by other reasonably available means." Id. at 489; see also Cooper 22 v. Calderon, 255 F.3d 1104, 1113-14 (9th Cir. 2001). The Government has made every effort to 23 preserve evidence it deems to be relevant and material to this case, including sending a letter to the 24 agency in charge on December 3, 2007 requesting the specific preservation of evidence. Any failure 25 to gather and preserve evidence, however, would not violate due process absent bad faith by the 26

27 ^{4/} Defendant again requests this discovery pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(C). Because Rule 28 16(a)(1)(C) only applies to organizational defendants, the Government interprets this as a request under Rule 16(a)(1)(E).

Government that results in actual prejudice to the Defendant. See Illinois v. Fisher, 540 U.S. 1174, 124 S.Ct. 1200 (2004) (per curiam); Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S. 51, 57-58 (1988); United States v. Rivera-Relle, 322 F.3d 670 (9th Cir. 2003); Downs v. Hoyt, 232 F.3d 1031, 1037-38 (9th Cir. 2000).

(10) Tangible Objects

The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E) in allowing Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy documents and tangible objects that are within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the preparation of Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its case-in-chief at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The Government need not, however, produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th Cir. 1984).

(11) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie

The Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide evidence that could be used to impeach Government witnesses including material information regarding demonstrable bias or motive to lie. The Government is not aware of any evidence of any bias or motivation to lie on the part of prospective government witnesses. If the Government discovers the existence of information related to a government witness's bias or motive to lie, the information will be provided to the Defendant.

(12) Impeachment Evidence

As discussed elsewhere, the Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide material evidence that could be used to impeach Government witnesses.

(13) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness

Defendant is not entitled to any evidence that a prospective witness is under criminal investigation by federal, state, or local authorities. The Government is under no obligation to turn over the criminal records or rap sheet of its potential witnesses. United States v. Taylor, 542 F.2d 1023, 1026 (8th Cir. 1976). The Government will, however, provide the conviction record, if any, which could be used to impeach witnesses the United States intends to call in its case-in-chief.

(14) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Veracity

The Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide material evidence that could be used to impeach Government witnesses including material information related to perception, recollection, ability to communicate, or truth telling. The Government strenuously objects to providing any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an alcoholic because such information is not discoverable under Rule 16, Brady, Giglio, Henthorn, or any other Constitutional or statutory disclosure provision.

(15) Witness Addresses

The Government has already provided Defendant with the reports containing the names, work addresses, and telephone numbers of the inspectors, officers and special agents whom asked questions of Defendant and found the marijuana in the vehicle. In its trial memorandum, the Government will provide Defendant with a list of all witnesses whom it intends to call in its case-in-chief, although delivery of such a witness list is not required. See United States v. Discher, 960 F.2d 870 (9th Cir. 1992); United States v. Mills, 810 F.2d 907, 910 (9th Cir. 1987). The Government strenuously objects to providing the home addresses or the home or personal cellular telephone numbers to Defendant. In non-capital cases, the Government is not even required to disclose the names of its witnesses prior to trial. United States v. Dishner, 974 F.2d 1502, 1522 (9th Cir 1992); (citing United States v. Steel, 759 F.2d 706, 709 (9th Cir. 1985)); United States v. Hicks, 103 F.23d 837, 841 (9th Cir. 1996); see also United States v. Bejasa, 904 F.2d 137 (2d Cir. 1990) (holding that United States did not improperly deny defendant access to government witnesses whose telephone numbers and addresses the government refused to provide because defendant knew the identities of the government witnesses and presumably knew their telephone numbers or could have contacted them through the exercise of due diligence).

(16) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant

The Government is not aware of the names of any witnesses favorable to the Defendant's case. If the Government discovers any witnesses favorable to Defendant, the names of such witnesses will be promptly provided.

(17) Statements Relevant to the Defense

The Government will provide all statements relevant to Defendant as required by Rule 16, Brady, and Jencks. The Government is not all possible information and evidence regarding any

1 speculative defense claimed by Defendant. Wood v. Bartholomew, 516 U.S. 1, 6-8 (1995) (per curiam)
2 (holding that inadmissible materials that are not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible exculpatory
3 evidence are not subject to disclosure under Brady).

4 (18) Jencks Act Material

5 Rule 26.2 incorporates the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. §3500, into the Federal Rules of Criminal 6 Procedure. The Jencks Act requires that, after a Government witness has testified on direct examination, 7 the Government must give the Defendant any “statement” (as defined by the Jencks Act) in the 8 Government’s possession that was made by the witness relating to the subject matter to which the 9 witness testified. 18 U.S.C. §3500(b). For purposes of the Jencks Act, a “statement” is (1) a written 10 statement made by the witness and signed or otherwise adopted or approved by her, (2) a substantially 11 verbatim, contemporaneously recorded transcription of the witness’s oral statement, or (3) a statement 12 by the witness before a grand jury. 18 U.S.C. §3500(e). If notes are read back to a witness to see 13 whether or not the government agent correctly understood what the witness was saying, that act
14 constitutes “adoption by the witness” for purposes of the Jencks Act. United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 15 1101, 1105 (9th Cir. 1991) (citing Goldberg v. United States, 425 U.S. 94, 98 (1976)). There is no 16 applicable Jencks material at this time. If the case proceeds to trial, the Government will produce any 17 materials covered by the Jencks Act relevant to the testifying witness(es).

18 (19) Giglio Information

19 An agreement that the Government makes with a witness for testimony in exchange for money 20 or in exchange for favorable treatment in the criminal justice system is generally subject to disclosure
21 as impeachment evidence under Brady and Giglio. See United States v. Kojayan, 8 F.3d 1315, 1322-23
22 (9th Cir. 1993); Benn v. Lambert, 238 F.3d 1040, 1054-60 (9th Cir. 2002). The Government is not 23 aware of any Giglio information related to this case. If the Government discovers the existence of 24 Giglio information, the information will be provided to the Defendant.

25 (20) Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest

26 The Government objects to Defendant’s request that the Government reveal all citizen 27 complaints, and internal affair inquiries into the inspectors, officers, and agents who were involved in 28 this case – regardless of whether the complaints or inquiries are baseless or material and regardless of whether the Government intends to call inspectors, officers, and agents to testify. As previously noted, the Government will comply with Henthorn and disclose to Defendant all material incriminating information regarding the testifying inspectors, officers, and special agents

(21) Government Examination of Law Enforcement Personnel Files

The Government will comply with United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991) and request that all federal agencies involved in the criminal investigation and prosecution review the personnel files of the federal law enforcement inspectors, officers, and special agents whom the Government intends to call at trial and disclose information favorable to the defense that meets the appropriate standard of materiality. United States v. Booth, 309 F.3d 566, 574 (9th Cir. 2002) (citing United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488, 1489 (9th Cir. 1992)). If the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney is uncertain whether certain incriminating information in the personnel files is “material,” the information will be submitted to the Court for an in camera inspection and review.

III

DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

The Government does not object to the granting of leave to file further motions as long as the further motions are based on newly discovered evidence or discovery provided by the Government subsequent to the instant motion at issue.

IV

GOVERNMENT’S MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY

A. All Evidence That Defendant Intends To Introduce In His Case-In-Chief

Since the Government will honor Defendant’s request for disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(E), the Government is entitled to reciprocal discovery under Rule 16(b)(1). Pursuant to Rule 16(b)(1), the Government requests that Defendant permit the Government to inspect, copy and photograph any and all books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, or make copies or portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody, or control of Defendant and which Defendant intends to introduce as evidence in his case-in-chief at trial.

The Government further requests that it be permitted to inspect and copy or photograph any results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in

1 connection with this case, which are in the possession and control of Defendant, which he intends to 2 introduce as evidence-in-chief at the trial, or which were prepared by a witness whom Defendant intends 3 to call as a witness. The Government also requests that the Court make such order as it deems necessary 4 under Rules 16(d)(1) and (2) to ensure that the Government receives the reciprocal discovery to which 5 it is entitled.

6 B. Reciprocal Jencks – Statements By Defense Witnesses (Other Than Defendant)

7 Rule 26.2 provides for the reciprocal production of Jencks material. Rule 26.2 requires 8 production of the prior statements of all witnesses, except a statement made by Defendant. The time 9 frame established by Rule 26.2 requires the statements to be provided to the Government after the 10 witness has testified. However, to expedite trial proceedings, the Government hereby requests that 11 Defendant be ordered to provide all prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable date before 12 trial to be set by the Court. Such an order should include any form in which these statements are 13 memorialized, including but not limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes and reports.

14 V

15 CONCLUSION

16 For the foregoing reasons, the Government requests that the Court deny Defendant's motions, 17 except where unopposed, and grant the Government's motion for reciprocal discovery.
